6 Basis of supply

6.1 Basis of Supply – Microsoft Customer Agreement	Microsoft Cloud Services are Ordered and provisioned by the Supplier subject to this Statement of Supply and the applicable Microsoft Customer Agreement. The Microsoft Customer Agreement applicable for the Customer is here:

	https://www.microsoft.com/licensing/docs/customeragreement The Microsoft Customer Agreement is an agreement between Microsoft and the Customer and includes General Terms, Use Rights, SLAs (service level agreements) and any additional terms Microsoft presents when an order is placed (the terms 'General Terms', 'Use Rights' and 'SLA' are defined in the Microsoft Customer Agreement). <hr/>
6.2 Receipt of Microsoft Customer Agreement	The Customer acknowledges receipt of the current Microsoft Customer Agreement from the Supplier and by authorizing the Supplier to place Orders for Microsoft Cloud Services for the Customer, the Customer confirms: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - its acceptance of the Microsoft Customer Agreement; - that the Supplier is authorized by the Customer to confirm the Customer's acceptance of the Microsoft Customer Agreement on behalf of the Customer. If required by the Supplier, the Customer will confirm its acceptance of the Microsoft Customer Agreement in writing. The Customer acknowledges that the Supplier is not permitted to revise the Microsoft Customer Agreement in any way.
6.3 Subscription Renewals	If Microsoft updates the Microsoft Customer Agreement the Customer must accept the new Microsoft Customer Agreement at or before renewal of their subscription. The updated Microsoft Customer Agreement (if any) will be available at the above link (if a link is provided) or will be made available to the Customer prior to the subscription renewal. On renewal of a subscription, the Customer is deemed to have accepted the updated Microsoft Customer Agreement.

7.1 Pricing	If a quote or proposal has been issued by the Supplier pricing will be in accordance with the applicable quote or proposal (provided that the quote or proposal was still open for acceptance when accepted by the Customer).
7.2 Payment amounts	Payment amounts will be based on Customer subscriptions and seat-counts as recorded on the Customer Account.
7.3 Timing of payment	Invoices will be issued monthly unless specified otherwise in the relevant quote or proposal. Payments are due on the 14 days from the date of invoice

8 Order of precedence

8.1 Order of precedence:	Refer to Master terms and conditions
--------------------------	--------------------------------------

9 Microsoft Customer Account

9.1 For the purposes of this Agreement, the Customer is responsible for all activity in the Customer Account including without limitation all subscriptions (and the associated seat-count).

9.2 The Supplier has no obligation, under this Statement of Supply, to supervise or in any way monitor the Customer's requests for subscriptions or the requested seat-count (or suitability of the Customer's subscriptions or requested seat-count).

10 Supplier Administrator Access

10.1 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) once this Statement of Supply is signed by both parties, the Customer will receive a link from the Supplier at which the Customer will confirm the Supplier as being its supplier of the Microsoft Cloud Services (unless this has already occurred);
- (b) the Supplier and the Distributor will (following confirmation by the Customer under (a) above, unless this has already occurred):
 - i. be the Primary Administrator of the Microsoft Cloud Services for the Customer for the term of this Statement of Supply; and
 - ii. have administrative privileges and access to Customer Data and administrator data;

- (c) the Customer may at any time request additional administrator privileges from the Supplier;
- (d) the Customer can, at its sole discretion and at any time during the term of this Statement of Supply, terminate the Supplier's and the Distributor's administrative privileges, provided that any such termination under this clause does not alter the Customer's payment obligations under this Statement of Supply and will impact the support available to the Customer in respect of the Microsoft Cloud Services; and
- (e) the Customer appoints the Supplier and the Distributor as its agent for the purposes of interfacing with and providing instructions to Microsoft for the purposes of this Statement of Supply.

11 Subscriptions to Microsoft Cloud Services

- 11.1 Nothing in this Statement of Supply alters the rights and obligations of the Customer or Microsoft under the Microsoft Customer Agreement between Microsoft and the Customer which is accepted by the Customer (as described in clause 6 above) in respect of all Microsoft Cloud Services.
- 11.2 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that Microsoft may send direct communications to the Customer related to the terms of the Microsoft Customer Agreement or the operation or delivery of the Microsoft Cloud Services.

12 Support for Microsoft Cloud Services

- 12.1 The Supplier is the Customer's point of contact for the Customer for all operational and technical support questions related to the Microsoft Cloud Services.
- 12.2 The Supplier's support policies, support hours, incident response time and service levels are described in a separate agreement between the Supplier and Customer.
- 12.3 If the Customer considers that it has a claim on the SLA (the 'SLA' being the service level commitments made by Microsoft to the Customer in respect of the Microsoft Cloud Services), the Customer must submit the claim to Microsoft in accordance with the Microsoft Customer Agreement and notify the Supplier in order for any applicable service credit to be channelled back through the Supplier and applied to your account with the Supplier.
- 12.4 The Customer acknowledges that the Supplier cannot remedy, and has no obligation to seek to remedy, any defect or purported defect in the Microsoft Cloud Services that may be identified by the Customer and that the remedy (if any) that the Customer may have in relation to such defects is contained in and subject to the Customer's applicable Microsoft Customer Agreement.

13 Adjustments to subscriptions

- 13.1 The Customer may add to fixed term subscriptions to Microsoft Cloud Services during the subscription term, by requesting the Supplier to make an adjustment or by making an adjustment itself. These adjustments will result in increased subscription costs.

14 Pricing and payment

- 14.1 The Customer will pay all invoices issued by the Supplier to the Customer under this Statement of Supply in full, without setoff, counterclaim or deduction of any kind, on or before the due date.
- 14.2 Without limiting the reasons that the Supplier may decline a disputed invoice claim, a claim by a Customer that a subscription or that the specified seat-count or any part of it added to the Customer Account was not needed by the Customer, will not relieve the Customer from its obligation to pay for the subscription or specified seat- and will not provide a reason for validly disputing an invoice.
- 14.3 Without the Supplier waiving any other right or remedy it may have (including its rights under the Master Terms and Conditions), if any amount due is not paid by the Customer by the due date, the Supplier may:
- (a) suspend the relevant Microsoft Cloud Services (such that the Customer will not have access to those services) and/or decline to place any additional Orders for the Customer and/or may suspend delivery of services to the Customer under any other agreement between the Supplier and the Customer, until the outstanding amount is paid in full provided that any suspension of Microsoft Cloud Services under this clause 14.3(a) does not in any way suspend or alter the Customer's obligation to pay for the relevant Microsoft Cloud Services for the full term of the relevant subscription(s). The Supplier will give 10 Working Days' notice in writing of its intention to suspend Microsoft Cloud Services under this clause.

15 Customer Data

- 15.1 Subject to clause 15.2, the Supplier may collect, use, transfer, disclose, and otherwise process the Customer Data as required in its performance of this Statement of Supply.
- 15.2 The Supplier will only access the Customer Data and disclose the Customer Data to law enforcement or government authorities to the extent required by law. If a request for Customer Data is made by a law enforcement agency or government authority (directly or through Microsoft or the applicable third party vendor), the Supplier will redirect the request to the Customer or if redirection is not permitted or feasible in the available time frame and unless legally prohibited from doing so, the Supplier will notify the Customer of the request as soon as practically possible.
- 15.3 The Customer will, as and to the extent required by law, notify individual users of the Cloud Services, that their data may be disclosed to law enforcement or other government authorities (if a request is made by law enforcement or other government authorities). It is the Customer's responsibility to obtain consent from individual users to the potential for disclosure under this clause.
- 15.4 The Customer consents to Microsoft providing the Supplier and the Distributor with Customer Data and information that the Customer provides to Microsoft for the purposes of the Supplier and the Distributor ordering, provisioning and administering the Microsoft Cloud Services.

16 Personal Data and Data Protection

- 16.1 Refer to the 'Personal Data and Data Protection' provisions in the Master Terms & Conditions.
- 16.2 The Customer acknowledges that Processing of Personal Data by Microsoft is addressed in the Microsoft Customer Agreement.
- 16.3 The Customer acknowledges that the obligations that Microsoft may have in respect of a Personal Data Breach, where applicable, are addressed in the Microsoft Customer Agreement.

17 Intellectual property

- 17.1 Refer to the Microsoft Customer Agreement.

18 No warranties

- 18.1 To the extent permitted by law, all warranties, terms and conditions (including without limitation, warranties and conditions as to fitness for purpose and merchantability) implied by legislation or otherwise, are excluded by the Supplier.

19 Warranty position for Cloud Services

- 19.1 The Supplier will use reasonable endeavours to assist the Customer to deal with Microsoft (via the Distributor where applicable) on any warranty claims in respect of the Microsoft Cloud Services.
- 19.2 Subject to clause 12 and clause 19.1, the Supplier has no obligations in respect of defects, support requirements or otherwise for the Microsoft Cloud Services including without limitation that in the event of any defect or failure of the Microsoft Cloud Services the Supplier has no obligation to provide any interim hardware, software, other equipment or remedial service.

20 Termination of Statement of Supply

- 20.1 In addition to the rights of termination under the Master Terms and Conditions, except where the Customer has unexpired subscriptions (whether initial term or renewal term) to Microsoft Cloud Services, either party may terminate this Statement of Supply on 30 days' written notice to the other party.

21 Consequences of termination

- 21.1 On termination of this Statement of Supply where the Customer has unexpired subscriptions for Microsoft Cloud Services, the Customer will pay the Supplier for the full fixed term (excluding any renewal term to which the Customer is not yet contractually committed under this Statement of Supply).
- 21.2 On termination of this Statement of Supply the Supplier will issue invoices to the Customer for all amounts specified in clause 21.1 for which no invoice has yet been issued and all such invoices will be due seven days following the date of the invoice. Invoices issued prior to the date of termination will remain due in accordance with the terms of the invoice.

21.3 On termination of a subscription the Customer will have 30 days to migrate any Customer Data to either a new subscription or some other service.

22 Liability

22.1 Without limiting the liability provisions in the Master Terms and Conditions, in no event is the Supplier liable to the Customer for the Microsoft Cloud Services, including without limitation in terms of performance, non-performance, availability, non-availability, compliance or non-compliance with specifications of the Microsoft Cloud Services or otherwise. Any right or remedy that the Customer may have in relation to the Microsoft Cloud Services is included or referenced in the Microsoft Customer Agreement.
